

KATH's 39th Annual Conference

The Legacy of the U.S. Civil Rights Act: Celebrating 50 Years

Friday, October 17, 2014

7:30 pm Reception with KATH conference speakers, The Mansion at Spalding University, Louisville

Saturday, October 18, 2014

9 am Registration and Light Breakfast at Spalding University's Egan Leadership Center

Breakfast courtesy of Spalding's president, Tori McClure

Information tables are available for the Kentucky Virtual Library (with Enid Wohlstein, Director of KYVL) and the H-Kentucky network (with Dr. Andrea Watkins, H-Kentucky Book Review Editor)

10 am Plenary Session in Egan Leadership Center, Lectorium

Welcome and Introduction of Keynoter by Pattie Dillon, KATH President

Keynote Address by Catherine Fosl, Ph.D., Department of Women's & Gender Studies, University of Louisville

"The Dynamite was Fear: Black Freedom, Red Scare in Kentucky, 1954"

11:15 am Breakout Sessions for Discussion

"Continuing the Conversation with the Keynoter," Dr. Catherine Fosl - Egan Leadership Center, Lectorium

"A Discussion on Primary Sources and the Earle C. Clements Papers," Charles Flanagan, NARA - Mansion 301

"Taking the Gloves Off: Archives and Primary Sources in the Undergraduate Classroom," Jaimie Marie Burton, UK Libraries - Mansion 208

"Immigrants in the Coal Fields, Digital Humanities Project by Heidi Taylor-Caudill and Whitney Hays," Stacie Williams, UK Libraries - Mansion 205

12:30 pm Lunch The Mansion dining room/parlor - catered by Spalding University

"The Earle C. Clements Innovation in Education Award for Civics and History Teachers in Kentucky: A Partnership between the UK Libraries Wendell H. Ford Public Policy Research Center and the National Archives," Charles Flanagan

1:00 pm KATH Business Meeting: presentation of student writing awards and KATH Board elections

1:45 pm Breakout Sessions for Discussion

"Critical Race Theory and Teaching the U.S. Civil Rights Movement," Dr. Ryan Crowley, UK - Mansion 208

"Immigrants in the Coal Fields, Digital Humanities Project by Heidi Taylor-Caudill and Whitney Hays," Stacie Williams, UK Libraries - Mansion 205

"They are rising—all are rising": Teaching Civil Rights for Civic Purposes," Dr. Linda Levstik, UK - Mansion 301

3:00 pm Meeting Adjourned

KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION OF TEACHERS OF HISTORY

KATH Board, 2013-14

President

Pattie Dillon, Spalding University

Past President

Allison M. Hunt, Jefferson Co. Public Schools

President-Elect

Angela Ash, Owensboro CTC

Secretary*

Lorie Maltby, Henderson Comm. College

Treasurer*

Alana Cain Scott, Morehead State Univ.

Web Administrator*

Randolph Hollingsworth, University of KY

Community College Representative

Jake Gibbs, Bluegrass CTC

Private/Indep. Univ. Representative

Wendy Davis, Campbellsville University

Public Comp. Univ. Representative

Andrea Watkins, Northern Kentucky U

Research Universities Representative

Sara Abdmishani Price, U of Kentucky

Public Historians Representative

Cheryl Caskey, KY Historical Society

Librarian/Archivist Representative

Megan Mummey, University of Kentucky

K-12 Representatives

Crystal Culp, McCracken Juvenile Detention

At-Large Representative

Jackie Young, Spalding University

According to the KATH Constitution, the KATH Board consists of an Executive Committee and appointed officers (marked with *). Board members serve for two years; Executive Committee members are elected at the KATH Annual Meeting.

Spalding University Campus Buildings Used for the 2014 KATH Meeting

<http://networks.h-net.org/h-kentucky>

<http://KATH-online.org>

Nomination Slate for

KATH Executive Committee, 2014-15

President

Angela Ash, Owensboro Community & Technical College

President Elect

Megan Mummey, University of Kentucky

Past President

Pattie Dillon, Spalding University

Community Colleges Representative

Jake Gibbs, Bluegrass Community & Technical College

Private/Indep. Colleges & Univ. Representative

Deonte Hallowell, Spalding University

Public Comprehensive Universities Representative

Andrea Watkins, Northern Kentucky University

Research Universities Representative

Sara Abdmishani Price, University of Kentucky

Public Historians Representative

Kate Hesseldenz, Liberty Hall

Librarian/Archivist Representative

Nominations accepted from the floor

K-12 Representatives (two)

Nominations accepted from the floor

At-Large Representative

Nominations accepted from the floor

Fulfilling second year of term

