

KATH KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION OF TEACHERS OF HISTORY

37TH ANNUAL MEETING
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

DuPont Manual High School History Club

Kentucky
Humanities
Council

RECEPTION WITH CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

Friday, September 14, 2012, 7:30 p.m.

The Filson Historical Society, 1310 South Third Street, Louisville

CONFERENCE

Saturday, September 15, 2012

duPont Manual High School, 120 West Lee Street, Louisville

8:30 a.m. Welcome and breakfast

9 a.m. Keynote: Professor George C. Herring, University of KY
"1812: The War That Shouldn't Have Been Fought, Might Have Been Lost—And Played a Powerful Role in America's National Development"

10:30 a.m. Breakout sessions:

Kentucky in a Foreign Policy Context in the early 19th Century.
State Representative Steve Riggs (KY Commission on War of 1812 Bicentennial) and Dr. Herring

What about Native Americans? Dr. John Bowes, Eastern KY University, member KY Native American Heritage Commission

What about African-Americans? Dr. Alicestyne Turley, Berea College, Director of Woodson Center for Interracial Education

How would I find out about my own ancestors' role in or around the War? Louise T. Jones, Kentucky Historical Society

Noon. Networking Lunch and KHC Chautauqua performance by Harry Smith: Private William Greathouse, a KY militiaman

1:30 p.m. KATH ByLaws and Board Nomination Slate for 2012-
2013; Presentation of Student Writing Awards

2:30 p.m. Guided tour of historic Halleck Hall

QUESTIONS?

Contact Alana Scott,
KATH Treasurer
419 E. Main Street
Morehead, KY 40351

a.scott@moreheadstate.edu

606.783.2540

www.kath-online.org

Reserve your space now online at www.kath-online.org/annual-meeting