

Overnight Accommodations:

Hampton Inn
401 W 2nd St, Owensboro, KY 42301
(270) 685-2005
Room rate: $119/night

Reserve a room: Tell them you are with KATH Annual Meeting to get guaranteed rate.

Directions:

For the Friday Board and Presenter Dinner
Miller House
301 E 5th St, Owensboro, KY
(270) 685-5878
6:00 pm

For the Friday Evening Reception
Brescia University Campus Center
717 Frederica Street, Owensboro, KY
7:30 pm – 9:00 pm

For the Saturday Conference
Owensboro Community & Technical College
Main Campus, Advanced Technology Building
4800 New Hartford Road, Owensboro, KY

Questions? Contact Dr. Scott at 606.783.2540
a.scott@moreheadstate.edu

KATH
Kentucky Association of Teachers of History

c/o Dr. Alana Cain Scott, KATH Treasurer
419 E. Main Street
Morehead, KY 40351

Kentucky Association
of Teachers of History

KATH-online.org

KATH's 40th Annual Conference

Making History: Controversy and
Culture Wars

October 2-3, 2015
Owensboro, Kentucky

Registration Form

Name:

Institution (or retired from):

Address (indicate if work or home):

Phone:

Email:

Circle appropriate costs:

Friday Evening Reception	$10
Full conference (inc. breakfast/lunch)*	$50
Full conference, student rate*	$15
Conference w/o lunch*	$35
Conference w/o lunch, student rate*	$10
Cannot attend meeting, but want to renew KATH membership	$10
Cannot attend meeting, but want to support KATH conference costs $ _____

Total Amount Enclosed $ _____
(make check payable to KATH)

Mail form and check to KATH c/o Dr. Alana Cain Scott, 419 E. Main Street, Morehead, KY 40351

* Includes membership dues for 2015-16

The H-Kentucky discussion network supports KATH members and others with notices about jobs or events and conversations about history/ humanities scholarship and innovative pedagogies in Kentucky schools, colleges and organizations.

Friday, October 2

7:30 pm Reception with KATH conference speakers, Brescia University Campus Center

Saturday, October 3

9 am Registration

*Light breakfast donated by the OCTC Foundation

10 am Plenary Session: Keynote Panel

*Common Core Crossroads: Pathways to Post-Secondary Education - Allison Hunt, DuPont Manual High School; Jennifer Fraker, KDE; Dr. Jay Morgan, CPE

11:15 am Breakout Sessions for Discussion

*Was Justice Served?: The Boston Massacre and Ferguson, Missouri - Brent Taylor, WKCTC

*Meaning in the Spaces: Archivists' Impact on the Historical Record - Ruth Bryan, University of Kentucky Libraries

12:30 Lunch by Fire Up the Grill

1:00 pm KATH Business Meeting: presentation of student writing awards and KATH Board elections

1:45 Breakout Session for Discussion

*Continuing the Conversation: An Informal Discussion

Special thanks to...

Award Sponsors -

George Herring, Randolph Hollingsworth, Lorie Maltby, Melissa McEuen

Corporate Sponsors -

Macmillan (Cynthia Rast Hall)
McGraw Hill (Matt Murphy)
Cengage (Chris Heister)

KATH Board, 2014-15

President

Angela Ash, Owensboro CTC

Past President

Dr. Pattie Dillon, Spalding University

President-Elect

Megan Mummey, University of Kentucky

Secretary

Lorie Maltby, Henderson Comm. College

Treasurer

Alana Cain Scott, Morehead State Univ.

Web Administrator

Randolph Hollingsworth, University of KY

Comm/Tech College Representative

Jake Gibbs, Bluegrass CTC

Private/Independent Univ. Representative

Deonte Hollowell, Spalding University

Comprehensive University Representative

Andrea Watkins, Northern KY University

Research University Representative

Sara Price, University of Kentucky

Public Historians Representative

Kate Hesseldenz, Liberty Hall Historic Site

Librarian/Archivist Representative

Leslie Byrne McCarty, Daviess Co. Public Library

K-12 Representatives

Unfilled

Representative at-Large

Brent Taylor, West Kentucky CTC

KATH-online.org

Kentucky Association of Teachers of History
c/o Dr. Alana Cain Scott, KATH Treasurer

419 E. Main Street
Morehead, KY 40351
606.783.2540

a.scott@moreheadstate.edu