

SEPT. 14TH-15TH 2018 KATH CONFERENCE

Anniversaries in History

The time for this year's annual KATH Conference is getting near. The conference will be held at the Ekstrom Library on the beautiful campus of the University of Louisville. We will feature multiple content sessions related to American and World history. Attendance for the 1-day conference will earn a certificate of six-hours of professional development. For those who want to arrive early, Friday evening will be an early treat as two groups will debate the US Constitution in the Chao Auditorium.

Some of this year's presenters:

---

Dr. Kristen Childers

Dr. Daniel Krebs

Dr. Thomas Mackey

Dr. Amy Sturgis

---

Topics will include:
The 14th Amendment,
The End of WWI,
French Colonialism,
and more.

---

Information about our organization
can be found at:

[https://kath-
online.org/](https://kath-online.org/)

Save the date!!!! September 15th

A registration fee of only $50.00.
More details coming soon!

Email howardlmuncy@gmail with questions.